

The Communicator Addendum August 24, 2023

This extra information on Thursday (Tonight) dance night just arrived from Charlie Detweiler. Hope a few of us can support him for this fun adventure. My grandkids all say Thursday is the new Friday.
Your Communicator

Hi Friends,

I know it's short notice but this Thursday we will have Music and Dance. I just came up with the idea last week and we want to check out Mexico Lindo and enjoy the Fiesta and Music. So we will meet there at 7:00pm this Thursday, August 24, have a drink and botany. They have a menu for various small plates we can choose from. The food and the dance lessons are free. Dance lessons start around 8:00 if you care to give it a try. We only pay for the drinks. They have valet parking if you drive there. I'm sure we will have a small turn-out because it's short notice for everyone but the music is great!

*Blvd. Benito Juarez 42, Las Palmas. See the link below for more info on Facebook. If you plan on going let me know I will reserve the Tables. cd
Hope we see you there,
Charlie and Gloria Detweiler*
