Last week was a busy one at Saint Michael's! The library is again in full swing with visitors coming and going, story hours and book sales. The English Tea, every Tuesday morning, 11-2 is the high point of the week for many on our campus.

Yoga with Ann (and Lupita too) is another of the beloved community outreach programs of SMAAA. This past week there were 20 participants!

We welcomed Ann back from her sad journey to Argentina attending the funeral of her beloved brother and had a wonderful class.

Sunday morning came, as it always does, and the few early morning faithful among us - choir, acolytes, priest.... were worried at 10:45 that Father Doug might literally be "preaching to the choir" but.... as always the church began to fill and by the sharing of the peace we had a good number of us.

Edi Velázquez Gómez gifted the congregation with a couple of beautiful guitar solos for both Offertory and Communion featuring music of Bach. It was a lovely, hauntingly different offering. We had several choir members back in the loft joining Laurie, Felipe and Edi. We hope the rest of the choir returns as the summer progresses and the spirit moves them.

Debbie provided us with a very healthy hospitality hour and I've been told that Jacqueline, Jorge's visiting daughter brought the gorgeous jello with fruit concoction that was a huge hit!!! As usual we had our customary six dogs!

Coco ready to go dancing!

And, of course, our dogs are the inspiration for the next big upcoming SMAAA project. Sunday, July 21 (YES NEXT SUNDAY), Onagh Ash will be photographing our dogs, your dogs, whatever dogs show up as we prepare to do a Divine Dogs of Saint Mike's Calendar. Wouldn't you like your dog to be Miss April, Mr. November, Miss

May???? If so, please come to church on Sunday with your leashed dog ready to be photographed after services. This Sunday we will not only have human treats during the Hospitality Hour but dog treats in our makeshift photo studio. The dogs photographed here attended one of Amigo's birthday parties. Clothes may not make the man but they just might help win your dog the coveted Calendar Cover.

Isn't this a formal event?

Wednesday's Current Events with Charlie Goff will not be held this week. Charlie is on a recruitment trip to Minnesota. It will resume next week. In the meantime, Charlie has been nurturing a mother cat and her kittens. This darling kitten is available to a superb home. For inquiries, Please contact The Communicator by WHATSAPP, 777-328-0637.

This past Sunday was a big one for the outreach of San Pablo to the homeless of Cuernavaca. Saint Michael and All Angels has joined with San Pablo to help make this program even more successful. This past Sunday Helen (yes, Helen and the staff of her bakery with many of you helping, donated enough food for 100 people. Members of SMAAA and members of San Pablo's helped to serve this feast. There was, as always, music and wonderful conviviality.

Please don't forget to bring your dry goods, canned goods, cleaning supplies and toiletries to church for donation each Sunday. These are used in the Ministry. There is also a peso jar for donations. If you would like to assist the Pastoral Outreach Committee, contact Pat Manners.

July 29-August 9 is Summer Camp at SMAAA. We have a devoted staff who have worked very hard to develop an enrichment program for the fortunate young people who will attend. Do you know young people who could benefit from this program? PLEASE Spread the WORD. It is a unique offering for young people in bilingual schools who want more exposure to English.
