Bishop Enrique Treviño and Madre Anita will be with us Sunday, July 5 for a special service of dedication. Our past seminarian Michael Drell is being ordained July 16 in Washington, D.C. and in thanksgiving for his call we have created a banner for Saint Mike's that will be blessed on July 5. Having recently finished his course in Homiletics, our current seminarian, Thomas Esakin, will preach that Sunday. Hopefully we will have an overflow congregation for this momentous day.

The SMAAA banner was designed and executed by artist Karime Sanchez Hernandez and incorporates many traditional elements of Morelos from the Pericon Cross, (ubiquitous in Morelos on the Day of Saint Michael's September 19), Popocatepetl, corn, nopal, etc. We look forward to this beautiful banner being part of our church for many years to come.

Congratulations to our soloist Juan Luis de Pablo Enriquez Rohan on the publication of his book, Harmonía. Fourteen years of serious, committed writing and study and Juan Luis, who is actually a known Mexican composer, Harmonía. It is available through Amazon.
